Curacao Marriott Beach Resort & Emerald Casino enhances the resort's Pool facilities.

"A brand new renovated pool,
with the most exciting view..."

The Resort, welcomes guests to experience the newly renovated pool facilities.

Willemstad, Curacao - (December 7, 2009) – The Curaçao Marriott Beach Resort & Emerald Casino is excited to announce new enhancements to the pool facilities.

The hotel welcomes guests to experience the newly renovated pool facilities, with a sophisticated light system inside the pool with the capability to change to many different colors. In addition the resort created a juice bar where visitors can enjoy freshly made smoothies while at the same time the famous Seabreeze swim-up bar located next to the beach received many cosmetic enhancements.

"In the words of Mr. Bill Marriott, success is never final. With that as our inspiration and direction, we remain in a constant state of improvement. The pool is now featuring the latest in lighting technology, and it also outfitted with ultra modern life and safety equipment. In addition, we are pleased to announce the first natural juice bar on the island. LUCHO's Juice Bar will soon feature the island's freshest fruit blended with other fresh ingredients to create a cool and refreshing natural alternative." said John Toti General Manager of the prestigious hotel.
