Dublin's most distinguished address

A national treasure

The world famous Shelbourne is a timeless landmark in the heart of Dublin. Overlooking the magnificent St. Stephen's Green, it is just seconds from the city's sights and shops, commerce and culture. But the connection to Ireland's capital runs far deeper than location.

Founded in 1824, The Shelbourne Dublin, a Renaissance Hotel, is a place where history has been made - the Irish Constitution was drafted, literary masterpieces were penned and society was shaped. Today, as part of the worldwide Renaissance brand, the hotel has been dramatically restored to its full original splendour.

‘Life in the Shelbourne is a thing in itself,
and a thing to be studied’

GEORGE MOORE, 1886

Luxurious surroundings

The grandeur of the setting is more than matched by the high levels of service. So, while our team takes care of your luggage, relax and savour the wonderful atmosphere. As the renowned writer Elizabeth Bowen once wrote, “The place seems to be thronged with the handsome, the hearty, the happy and the polite.”

Reflecting the past
embracing the future
A living work of art

Contemporary Irish Art

The hotel's reception is the perfect introduction to the spirit of The Shelbourne. Beneath your feet you'll find gleaming Italian marble, while above you are sparkling chandeliers and decorative stained glass. Throughout the hotel, the walls are adorned with stunning works by many of Ireland's national treasures including Louis le Brocquy, Barrie Cooke and Cian McLoughlin.

The renowned Horseshoe Bar is right at the hub of Dublin's pub culture, a place for lively conversation, friendly banter and the occasional tall story. With its rich red walls, original artefacts and fascinating memorabilia, it is firmly established as one of Dublin's finest bars.

Dublin's social centre

The Horseshoe Bar

Over the years, this cosy bar has been a meeting point for politicians and journalists, sportsmen and movie stars, high-flying millionaires and local personalities. Pull up a stool beneath the original Hogarth prints and soak up the truly magical atmosphere.

Elegant and peaceful
The Lord Mayor's Lounge is pure intimate luxury

An expression of elegance

Comfort and style combine in the inspiring Lord Mayor's Lounge. Every detail has been crafted to reflect the hotel's history, while retaining a light, contemporary feel. This is the place to sample our indulgent Afternoon Tea, to spot famous faces and savour life's great pleasures.

No. 27 Bar & Lounge is the place to be, and be seen, on St Stephen's Green. Rich polished marble, exquisite original artworks and tall graceful windows all combine to create a space that sparkles with style.

Sophisticated fun

For an experience, chose from our unique wine collection and stunning range of creative cocktails. For eating, we offer exceptional social food: combination platters and towers of iced seafood. Share the good times with friends or mingle with guests at the communal tables – it is all up to you.

The Saddle Room A modern steak and seafood restaurant

“The best oysters in Ireland”

ANNE KENNEDY, THE GUARDIAN

An experience to savour

The Saddle Room was created to inspire the senses: the sights and sounds of the open kitchen, the soft touch of leather banquettes and the tastes of the finest steak and seafood.

With its dark oak walls and rich splashes of gold, the room has an intimate but lively feel. It's all complemented by a contemporary, tempting menu and attentive, savvy service. Here, memorable nights and perfect get-togethers seem to come naturally.

Bring your senses to life at the tempting Oyster Bar

The theatre of dining

Get closer to the action in the sleek, spectacular Oyster Bar. Sip the finest vintage Champagnes while our experienced team prepare the freshest oysters available from West Clare, Carlingford, Galway and French Claire.

The Heritage experience

‘Irish hotels don’t come any closer to six stars than this’

GEMMA O'DOHERTY, IRISH INDEPENDENT

Guests of Suites and Heritage Rooms enjoy exclusive access to the Heritage Lounge on the first floor, overlooking St. Stephen's Green. The Heritage Lounge features food presentations daily, private concierge, wireless internet access and worldwide newspapers. A hotel within a hotel.

The hotel's 19 suites – many named after famous guests – are a lesson in indulgence. Most famous is the Princess Grace Suite along with John F. Kennedy, Michael Collins and Eamonn De Velera. Each suite features a separate living area and marvellous view across St. Stephen's Green.

Every room is unique but they all share a sense of charm and style

Ireland's best bed

Each one of The Shelbourne's 265 bedrooms reflects its focus on quality – right down to the smallest detail. Bedding is pure 100% Egyptian cotton by Rivolta Carmignani, the elegant marble bathrooms include luxury amenities and all rooms feature flat-screen televisions, high speed internet access and individual climate control.

The Shelbourne has 13 historic meeting rooms, ideal for everything from intimate private dining to impressive business conferences. Many of these rooms have their own unique character, style and stories.

Where important occasions are given a special touch of class

Most famous is the Constitution Suite, where the Irish Constitution was drafted in 1922 under the chairmanship of Michael Collins. And, alongside history, expect modern technology. There is high speed internet access throughout the hotel, a fully equipped business centre and advanced audio-visual facilities.

State of the art technology in opulent surroundings

Create a spectacle

Capable of seating up to 330 for a dinner dance, the majestic Great Room includes ornate original features, silk wall coverings as well as state of the art lighting system and audio-visual equipment.

The room can be fully tailored to match your occasion. Use one of our pre-function rooms for cocktails or private receptions, create your own mix of visuals and lighting or set up a spectacular stage flanked with projection screens. Let us bring your imagination to life.

From The Shelbourne, the best of Dublin is on your doorstep. Explore the designer boutiques and famous department stores around Grafton Street. Follow in the footsteps of Oscar Wilde and Samuel Beckett and visit Trinity College or settle in with a pint at one of the City's many beautiful pubs.

A city of grace and character culture and flair

Alternatively, venture a little further afield and visit the home of Dublin's favourite drink, the Guinness Storehouse. We can arrange rounds of golf, activities and city tours. There is also stunning countryside and coastline to explore minutes from the hotel.
