

THERE AND BACK

ST JAMES' AND GREEN PARK RUN

LONDON MARRIOTT HOTEL COUNTY HALL
WESTMINSTER BRIDGE ROAD | PHONE 020 7928 5200

A scenic route through two of London's Royal Parks.

Exit the Hotel through the main entrance and turn right, crossing the River Thames. With Big Ben on your left, continue straight across Parliament Square, go down Great George Street for one hundred metres and enter St James' Park. A scenic run awaits you, as you run anti-clockwise around the park, parallel to Horse Guards Parade, and then The Mall. With Buckingham Palace in front of you, cross The Mall and enter Green Park. Continue around Green Park, anti-clockwise, passing The Ritz Hotel. Then running parallel to Piccadilly you reach your halfway point. Approaching Hyde Park Corner, the famous Wellington Arch is in view. As you continue around Green Park, run along Constitution Hill. Pass the front of Buckingham Palace and run down Birdcage Walk, before returning to Parliament Square and Big Ben ahead of you. A straight, but fast finish awaits you, as you cross over the Thames bringing you back to the Hotel for a well-deserved refresh!
