Courtyard Hartford Windsor Adds Style And Sophistication To Guest Rooms With Major Renovation Project

New furniture, carpet and lighting bring comfort to a new level at a hotel near the University of Hartford

Windsor, CT – Travelers seeking the comforts of home combined with the beauty of a modern hotel are in luck. The Courtyard Hartford Windsor has just unveiled its reimagined guest rooms after a major renovation project breathed new life into the hotel near the University of Hartford.

Guests will feel the difference the moment they step foot into one of the Windsor, CT, hotel's modern rooms with tone-on-tone décor seamlessly incorporating subtle color accents to delineate sleeping and living areas. The sculptural design of the lounge-around sofa and comfy chairs add to the aesthetic that lacks the clutter of traditional artwork. New lighting enhances the architecture and design of each room.

A handy luggage drop for easy storage greets visitors upon entry, and a tech-drop ledge accommodates cellphones, tablets, computers and other personal devices with easy-to-access electrical outlets for convenient charging any time. Visitors will appreciate more power outlets and ports throughout each room.

Hospitality cabinets in the rooms store coffeemakers, and a new bathroom nook allows guests to access towels and other amenities without having to leave the shower.

Business travelers in town for a conference or convention can take advantage of the spacious, redesigned workspaces that boast ergonomic chairs to maximize productivity.

As one of the most convenient hotels to Bradley International Airport (BDL), the Courtyard Hartford Windsor also showcases a new lobby that features The Bistro – Eat. Drink. Connect., as well as cozy media pods with personal flat-screen TVs and welcome pedestals that have replaced the traditional front desk. The casual, café-style eatery serves breakfast and dinner while offering Starbucks drinks by day and beer, wine and cocktails at night.
