New technology and comfort features at Greenwood Village hotel enhance travelers' stays

Greenwood Village, CO – The new room design recently unveiled at the Courtyard Denver Tech Center enhances comfort and quality while adding convenience and technological upgrades for today's modern traveler.

The complete refresh follows Courtyard's signature CYnergy package room design with indirect lighting and neutral color palettes for a welcoming and relaxing environment that is perfect for weary travelers.

Signature furniture and architectural elements replace traditional art. When guests retire to their rooms for the evening, they will enjoy thick mattresses topped with fluffy pillows and soft linens for a sound night's sleep. Complimentary Internet access will keep guests well-connected to email or social channels.

As one of the premier south Denver hotels near IKEA, the Courtyard is a shopper's dream.
