HOTELS

The Autograph Collection, by Marriott International, is an evolving ensemble of strikingly independent hotels.

Welcome to The Glasshouse

The venue

Whether you're after a distinctive venue for a meeting, reception or private dining, The Glasshouse combines a handsome history with the benefits of a five-star boutique hotel.

Flanking the gothic facade of Edinburgh's Lady Glenorchy Church soar the clean, contemporary lines of The Glasshouse. Striking a perfect balance between heritage and cutting edge, the harmonious exterior gives way to a coolly contemporary space with a traditional twist. Whatever the occasion, the location and excellent service will ensure an unforgettable event.

In the heart of the city

Known for its iconic architecture and the cultural heritage that saw Edinburgh nicknamed Athens of the North, The Glasshouse is in the heart of the city.

Just a five-minute stroll from Princes Street, Edinburgh Castle and The Royal Mile, it is the perfect location for enjoying all the city has to offer.

Private dining and receptions

Five private dining rooms can cater for breakfast, lunch or dinner for up to 40 guests. For larger parties, the Calton Suite is also available. The private dining rooms are also suitable for evening receptions of up to 30 people.

Our meeting spaces

The Glasshouse features a unique events space, the Calton Suite, The Observatory, two state-of-the-art boardrooms, named after famous Scottish writers - The Walter Scott, and The Louis Stevenson rooms. Two syndicate rooms are also available.

Facilities

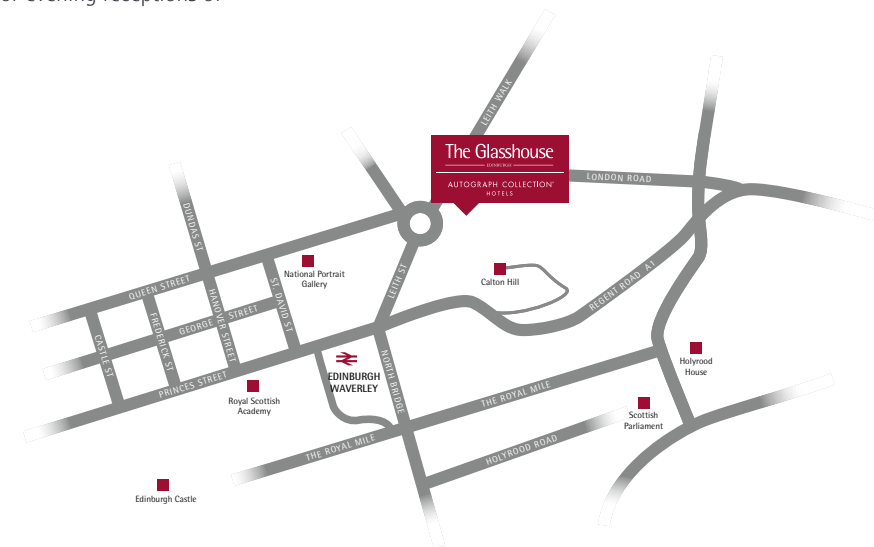

Room facilities include LCD projector and screen, flipcharts and stationery. Additional equipment or decorative items can be arranged on your behalf.

The Glasshouse is also available for exclusive hire. A minimum spend applies to all 'exclusive hire' options.
