Our Tea

The Glasshouse is delighted to be working with P.M.David Silva and Sons who have been working with plantations in Ceylon for over 60 years. The tea plant was first introduced to Ceylon (Sri Lanka) by James Taylor from Laurencekirk, Kincardineshire in 1867. The young Scot arrived in Ceylon in 1852 and settled on the Loolecondera estate near Kandy.

PMD teas not only create an exhilarating sensual experience, moreover, they tell a tale of an untold Scottish legend.
