GENERAL INFORMATION

ADMINISTRATIVE & OPERATIONAL INFORMATION

All necessary products or materials brought into the hotel for the event must be inventoried by the hotel's Loss Prevention representative(s). All event supplies must be admitted to the property and removed through the hotel's service entrance only.

The Hotel does provide storage area, as such, the hotel does not take responsibility for the damages or loss of the material or products left on property more than after 24 hours after the end of an event. Immediately after the event is concluded, all event supplies must be removed from the property and shipped to the meeting planner.

All suppliers and logistic personnel will be issued an I.D. by the hotel which must be worn at all times. The organizing company will be responsible for any damage caused to the facilities, rooms, equipment, decoration or installations at the hotel. The group will not be able to change or remove any decoration from the hotel without previous authorization from the Event Manager.

Any work for decorations or structures to be installed in the hotel facilities must be authorized by the Event Manager. The hotel will not become responsible for injury to guests or participants, during the event, caused by third party equipment used for the event. The owner of the equipment and the event's organizing company will be held responsible.

All the food must be provided by the Hotel and consumed on the hotel premises. Should meeting planners desire to provide food from an outside catering for his or here event, approval must be granted by the Director of Food & Beverage. The Hotel reserves the right to refuse admittance of outside food into the hotel.

In compliance with our global food safety standards, food items cannot be exposed for consumption any longer than two (2) hours. To further comply with these standards and ensure the health and safety of our guests, food items are not allowed to be removed from the hotel. All food must be consumed on the hotel's premises.

The use of confetti machines, fireworks, open flame candles, fog machines, flower petals on carpet or tablecloth is prohibited for events held at the hotel. No nailing nor gluing is allowed on hotel walls, lamps, chandeliers or fixtures. Obstruction of emergency exits and air vents is strictly prohibited.

The hotel does not serve liquor to minors according to Local Law.

A facilitation cost may be assessed to offset the use of the hotel's equipment and maintenance support during pre-event setup and event execution, if required.

An hourly rate of US$500.00 (plus tax and service charge), per hour per salon will be charged as rental for each additional hour, or part of, that the meeting space is occupied beyond the contracted event end time.

All prices are quoted in US Dollars. The current exchange rate is USD$1.00 to GYD$215.00.
