ORLANDO
At Flamingo Crossings

WELCOME

Both of our stylish all-suite hotels were designed with the needs of our guests in mind. That's why we invite you to experience both the space and style of our dual complex resort.

Both properties offer guests great opportunities to socialize, explore and experience all the things that Orlando has to offer while still maintaining the amenities and services they deserve. Guests will enjoy unparalleled convenience getting to and from the parks as well as being just minutes away from all the other world famous attractions which you will only find here with us.

DISNEY PLANNING CENTER

The Disney Planning Center, conveniently located near the front desk on the first floor of The SpringHill Suites, is a one-stop central hub where you can seamlessly organize your entire Disney experience. Meet one-on-one with a Disney Cast Member to plan the wonderful details of your stay, purchase your Disney Magic Bands for the Disney theme parks and reserve your table at a Disney restaurant. The team can even support your planning process before you walk in the door.

Flamingo Crossings is a pedestrian-friendly, mixed-use tourist district conveniently located outside the Western entrance to Walt Disney World® Resort. The unique district, master planned by Walt Disney Imagineering, is designed for the value-conscious traveler, featuring hotels, retail, casual and fast-food dining, gas, grocery and services.

Shared Amenities and Services:

- State-of-the-art, 1,700 square foot fitness center
- Resort-style swimming pool and whirlpool spa with extensive seating
- Athletic facilities featuring sports practice fields with batting cages
- Outdoor picnic areas and cooking grills
- Outdoor poolside restaurant and bar with interior and exterior seating and fire pit. Enjoy your favorite lunch and dinner menu offerings, light bites, as well as a full liquor bar.

The all-suite SpringHill Suites will be a hotel experience infused with space and style designed to appeal to business and leisure travelers who seek stylish, fun and spacious, yet functional accommodations at an affordable price. Ranked highest in the Guest Satisfaction Study for the Upscale Brand Segment by J.D. Power and Associates' 2012 North America Guest Satisfaction Index StudySM, the brand features spacious suites and smart layouts that allow guests to relax and re-energize. Bright and inviting lobbies offer the ideal venue to conduct casual meetings or socialize.
